Fingerprint Impression

Coveted use your loved one's ink fingerprint to create meaningful jewellery, engraved into solid gold or silver and made to carry with you for years to come. This is a simple, personal way to honour the connection you will always have.

Whether you wear it daily or keep it somewhere special, it's a piece that holds something real.

The Capsule Collection

A capsule necklace is a discreet and deeply meaningful way to carry something precious with you, a tiny keepsake, sealed forever within a capsule shaped pendant. Whether it's a lock of hair, a tiny love note, or a pinch of ashes, this pendant keeps your memory close, hidden yet always present.

Hand crafted in Wellington, you can work directly with the jeweller to design a unique keepsake, with options to personalise it further with a name or gemstone.

Memory Treasures

Fingerprint jewellery is one of the most emotive ways to keep a loved one close. Nothing is more unique and personal than a fingerprint.

---

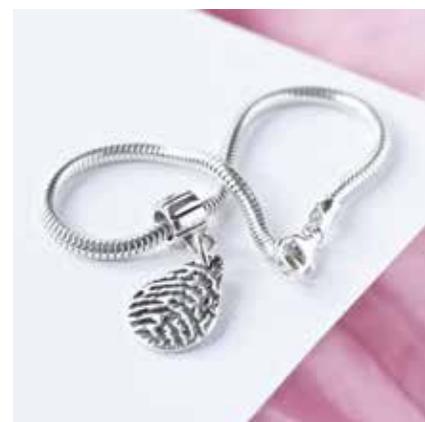

Capture the unique prints of loved ones who are no longer by your side. Our fingerprint jewellery provides a personal and comforting treasured reminder to those who have lost, or are about to lose, someone close.

The unique fingerprint is handcrafted on a sterling silver keepsake to treasure forever. You may also choose to have your jewellery gold plated for an additional $115 per piece.

Select from a range of timeless shapes. Every piece comes beautifully packaged, complete with a care card and polishing cloth.

Your funeral director will use a specially designed kit to help capture the finest details of your loved one's fingerprint. Our experienced jeweller, who specialises in fingerprint jewellery, takes great care to ensure each print is as clear and distinctive as possible.

All jewellery is individually handcrafted and hand finished. Please allow approximately four weeks for completion.
